

Turnstiles

Full Height Type Turnstiles are durable products that can be used indoors and outdoors. They provide access and access control in areas requiring high levels of security.

Turnstiles made from stainless steels are corrosion resistant, strong and easy to keep clean and hygienic. When calculating the life cycle cost it will often be the least expensive choice.